KENTUCKY IRISH AMERICAN.

VOLUME XXIV.—NO. 26.

LOUISVILLE, SATURDAY, JUNE 25, 1910.

PRICE FIVE CENTS.

GATHERING

Ot Great Churchmen Will Attend Eucharistic Congress in September.

Cardinal Vannutelli Will Come as Holy Father's Special Legate.

Elaborate Programme Provided For Solemnities of the Week.

HIBERNIANS WILL PARTICIPATE

The Eucharistic Congress to be held in Montreal, Canada, September event of the year in America, if not this means that innumerable laymen from many lands will visit Montreal, but less than 10 per cent. of those assembled will be able to get a acter, and is thus described in the announcement of the programme made at Montreal:

The main object of the work of and service of our Lord Jesus Christ in the most holy sacrament of the altar; to assert his sovereign rights by solemn manifestations and to strive thereby to extend his social reign throughout the world. Hence it is that among the many Congresses that are being held everywhere Eucharistic Congresses are second to none in dignity and excellence."

Pope Pius X. will be represented at the Congress by Cardinal Vincenzo Vannutelli, Prefect of the Apostolic Signaturea, of Rome, and Cardinat Protector of the Sulpician Order: He one of the most distinguished Princes of the church, both in his striking appearance and in the record of his accomplishments. His Cardinalate is that of St. San Sylvestre tion at Rome. Cardinal Vannutelli was born in 1837 and was created Cardinal in 1889. Cardinal Gibbons, of Baltimore, head of the American bierarchy, and Cardinal Logue, Primate of all Ireland, will be the other Princes of the church to attend the Eucharistic Congress.

Canada a week or two before the an American's theft of the casket opening of the solemnities, but will has burst and the press has quieted remain strictly incognito. Mayor J. down. The reliquary was found C. Guerin, an Irish Cathoffe, will abandoned in a wood nearby. There Lord Strathcona has placed his resi- the thieves were afraid to carry it dence at the disposal of the Cardinal away, it being too bulky. Legate during his stay.

At a reception to be held by the Cathedral Tuesday evening, Septemcivic reception will be given for the place, where it was soon found. Cardinal Legate and on Thursday the more ceremonious events of the celebration will begin. At midnight a solemn Pontifical mass will be celebrated in Notre Dame church. Only men will be admitted, and the pews will all be removed, affording room for twelve thousand persons on the main floor and in the galleries. Also on Thursday will begin the sectional meetings for men, women and priests to be held separately both in French and in English in different halls Thursday morning there will be a Pontifical mass at St. James' Cathedral for religious communities, and Friday morning the sectional meetings will continue. Papers of great interest will be read on these

On Friday morning, September 9 a great open-air service will be held at the foot of Mount Royal. The sermon in English will be delivered by Archbishop O'Connell, of Boston, and in French by Archbishop Touchette, of France. Cardinals Vannutelli, Gibbons and Logue and Archbishop tember 10, when Pontificial mass Trinity Council, and at the present will be celebrated. A procession rate will surpass any in its history. will be formed under the escort of forty Hebernian Knights, mounted, and the Congress Guard of Honor, a military body organized solely for the week, the uniform of which will be white and gold, the Papal colors. Kentucky Library Commission. By way of Dorchester street this were cast at Whitechapel foundry Governor will be commended. Admission to the church will be by ticket only, even for priests. Within the church the sanctuary will be reserved for the Cardinals and the Archbishop of Montreal. Cardinal Vannutelli wil' be the celebrant of the mass, and Archbishop Glennon, of St. Louis, one of the most elequent of the prelates of the Roman Catholic church in the United States, will

The culminating feature of the Congress from the standpoint of profession of the Blessed Sacrament on Sunday, September 11. This proession is a feature of every Eucharistic Congress. World-wide attention was drawn to it two years ago when Mr. Asquith, the British Premier, forbade the carrying of the host in the parade at London. His excuse was that he feared a hostile demonstration. The procession will include all the priests in Montreal, the Hibernian Knights, the Congress Guard and all Catholic organizations which may desire to participate. Sir Wilfred Laurier, the Dominion Premier, members of his Cabinet and members of the Canadian Parlia-ment will walk in that procession.

LIGHT OF FAITH

Given to Learned Minister of the Episcopalian

Church.

On the second Saturday in this month the Right Rev. Thomas, M. A. Burke, Bishop of Albany, ordained 6 to 11, will be the greatest church eleven young men to the priesthood in the Cathedral at Rochester, N. Y. in the world. Montreal is an old They were all graduates of St. Ber-Catholic city, in fact the oldest in nard's Seminary. Twelve other North America, hence it has been graduates of the same institution have gone to their respective dioceses States.

The life history of one of the newly ordained priests deserves more than passing notice. It is that of Rev. Francis McFettrick, who was for glimpse of all the solemnities. The Rev. Francis McFettrick, who was for Congress is purely spiritual in charmembers of the Episcopal church in Pennsylvania, and until two years ago rector of St. Siman's parish, Philadelphia. Father McFettrick is a native of Philadelphia. Following Eucharistic Congresses, which were native of Philadelphia. Following his ordination in 1895 he served as minister at St. Barnabas Episcopal is to promote the knowledge, love of Philadelphia. Following his ordination in 1895 he served as minister at St. Barnabas Episcopal church at Reading. The minister of Philadelphia. church at Reading. The minister who succeeded him there, the Rev. Mr. McGarvey, also joined the Catholoc church, and was ordained a priest one week after Father McFettrick. Last Sunday Father McFettrick celebrated high mass in Philadelphia in the same church in which he renounced Protestantism. He has been appointed Professor of English in St. Bernard's Seminary. It is a remarkable coincidence that the Rev. Ludlow E. Lapham, now deceased, who filled this chair before Father Mc-Fettrick, was also a convert and an Episcopalian minister.

RECOVERED.

taining Heart of St. Joseph.

Rome cablegrams to the American press say that the precious reliquary, with the heart of St. Joseph, which was stolen from Leoness last week, Cardinal Vannutelli will arrive in has been found. Thus the bubble of decome the Cardinal to Montreal. was such a commotion that evidently

This recalls the time when the marble tortoise of the famous "tor-Congress Committee at St. James' toise fountain" in Rome disappeared. The citizens were so furious and 6, the Cardinal Legate will kicked up such a row that the thieves hand his credentials to Archbishop understood that they could never sell Bruchesi. The following evening a it, so they threw it away in a public

TRINITY COUNCIL

Will Have Initiatoty Ceremonies Tomorrow Afternoon.

Even though the weather was quite warm last Monday night Trinity Council, Y. M. I., had its usual large attendance at the meeting and much routine matter was disposed of be fore President Vic Ecker announced the adjournment. A. G. Schneider, Chairman of the Picnic Committee reported that the members were working hard and stated that he wa atisfied that Trinity would again take the record crowd to Fern Grove on Tuesday, July 19.

Initiatory ceremonies will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock, after which refreshments will be served. Next Monday night the elec-Bruchesi will receive the public in tion of delegates to the Grand Council will be held, and on the same St. Patrick's church, the largest evening the by-laws of the council, English speaking church in the which have recently been revised Dominion, will be the scene of a will be offered for adoption. This notable ceremony on Saturday, Sep- has been a successful year for

COMMENDABLE APPOINTMENT.

Gol Willson last Saturday at nounced his appointments for the were received with general satisfacguard will enter the church grounds tion especially that of Dr. William by what thereafter will be known as B. Doherty, of this city. Dr. Doherty the Congress Gate, and at the same has had experience and will prov moment will be heard for the first one of the most valuable members of time a new chime of ten bells, which the body, and for his selection the

POPE'S PRAISE.

The Pope has sent a brief to Arch-bishop Quigley, of Chicago, highly praising the Catholie Church Exten-sion Society. The Pope has decided to appoint a Cardinal protector of this society, and he will probably name Cardinal Martinelli, Prefect of

DELAY

In Discussion of Vexed Question Prejudicial to Irish Interests.

Budget Not Popular in Ireland and an Outbreak May

Looked For Conterence Is Near But Agreement Not Probable.

n British Parliament toward settling the vexed quested of the veto of the House of Lords. King Edward's death has undoubtedly given a setback to the great constitutional struggle between the two British Houses of Parliament. Should this delay expected that three Cardinals, two for ordination. Thus the fame of St. prove of long duration the result scores of Archbishops, 120 Bishops Bernard's Seminary is growing, and may be damaging to the Irish scores of Archbishops, 120 Bishops and several thousand priests will gather for the occasion. Of course States askance any propositions for com-promise between the Liberal and There he was one of the organizers Tory parties.

The Irish members, baving voted Union. ceed promptly in the matter of respect to the required guarantees, find their position will be uncompromise is not crowned with speedy performance. The budget is not pepular in Ireland, and nothing save the prospect of an early settlement of the national question would have obtained for it the support it received. If that prospect becomes more remote a falling off in subscriptions, if not an actual outbreak against the Irish Parliamentary party, is highly probable.

The British opposed to home rule seek to put off any action looking toward relief for the Irish. They stick to the old idea that the only way to conquer the Irish is to divide them. Redmond and his colleagues have faith in Asquith, but his first attempt to shelve the home rule queswill mean the desertion of the

at a breakneck speed, always avoiding proposing any but the non-con-froversial proposals. For the first time in half a century the House of Commons is keeping seasonable hours and nightly rising in time for din-

As the time when a conference be tween the opposing parties must take place approaches the conjectures, rumors and attitude of mind change with every hour. The genral impression is that the conference is bound to end rapidly in a hopeless disagreement. On the other hand Premier Asquith has hopes that the conference may end in a settlement of the questions at issue. Mr. Balfour, it is said, is ready to surrender on many points on which everybody expected him to resist to the end. The Tories at last realize that the present House of Lords will no longer meet the coming storm half way by agreeing to even a drastic reform. One rumor has it that Balfour is willing to accept a purely elective House of Lords. Another rumor is to the effect that he will insist on home rule for Ireland. The situation, to say the least, is delicate one, and the Irish leaders fear that the Liberals may rush into some patched up compromise which will offend their own supporters. One thing is certain, the Tories recognize that there is no present chance of their winning the next elecion and the impossibility of longer defending the House of Lords.

King George remains friendly to Ireland. It is said that he is anxious which took place from St. Louis which to establish a royal residence ing. In that country. Some say that the King is very anxious to preside at the opening of an Irish Parliament in Dublin in the event home rule is obtained.

HAPPY FAMILY

is That of Lowrence Morrissey-Has Fifteen Children.

A family after Roosevelt's own neart is that of Mr. and Mrs Lawrence Morrissey, of Tecumseh Neb., whose children number fifteen. They range from thirty-one years to five, and all are healthy and happy. In this family are eleven boys and four giris. The father and sons make an even dozen, enough for a jury in court, and sufficient voters to hold he balance power in a close election district. Mr. Morrissey has always been a Democrat in politics, although e is an admirer of Roosevelt, who once received a picture of the Mor-rissey family and acknowledged it ap-

Lawrence Morrissey, the father, is native of Ireland, but has lived n Johnson county, Nebraska, since 1867. In 1876 he married Miss B. Idget Gould. Sixteen children were born to them, and only one has years old and his wife fifty-one. Of the fifteen living children four are married. Mr. and Mrs. Morrissey have seven grandchildren. There is one set of twins in the fifteen children, Martin and Matthew. Mr. Morrissey has supported him-self and family on his Nebraska farm. It is hardly necessary to say that the Morrisseys are Irish Catholics.

MAYOR M'CARTHY

Is a Native of Ireland and a Born Leader of Men.

Mayor of San Francisco, denies the language attributed to him in the course of an interview in Chicago. It was alleged that McCarthy became wrothy because Gov. Gillett GEORGE WANTS IRISH ESTATE had ordered summary steps taken to stop the Jeffries-Johnson fight, and that the Mayor had intimated that the Governor had better mind And still there is nothing doing his own business; also that he would use his police force to combat the State militia. Mayor McCarthy ernor's interference, but denies that law or advising others to do so. Mayor McCarthy was born in the County Kerry, Ireland, forty-seven years ago. He came to the United States at the age of eighteen. He should be celebrated in a Dominican settled in St. Louis, where he worked at his trade as ship carpenter. Irishman by birth, lived long in of the Carpenters' and Joiners' for the budget on the strength of St. Louis he removed to San Fran- never had any opportunity of ad-Premier Asquith's promise to pro- cisco and at once became a figure in ministering the affairs of his diocese. labor circles on the Pacific coast. In tendering advice to the Crown with 1894 he organized the San Francisco Building Trades' Council and the celebrant of the solemn high mass was elected its first President. In was the Rev. Father Matthew L. fortable in no small degree if this 1907 he was the Labor candidate the labor vote was divided. In the 1909 election the Labor element was Mayor. He has always had the hearty support of many leading business men, and when he headed a delegation to Washington during the first week in June he had as his supporting delegates both bank Presidents and labor leaders.

The press of the country seems for Ireland are aware of this, and prone to poke fun at him because he is an Irishman. Mayor McCarthy

RECENT DEATHS.

The funeral of William McDonald, who died at his home, 1640 Tyler avenue, on Saturday, took place Since Parliament resumed its sit-from St. Patrick's church on Tues-day morning. Many friends of the Incopite, the name of the English Precious Reliquery Con- since Parliament resumed its sit- from St. Factories of the tings the Government is passing bills day morning. Many friends of the tings the Government is passing bills day morning.

> John Vogel died at the home of his father, Anton Vogel, 435 South Seventeenth street, on Saturday night, and his funeral took place from St. Mary's church on Tuesday. The deceased was held in high es teem by all who knew him, and his funeral was largely attended.

> William J. Scalley, twenty-six years old and a clerk at the L. & N. railroad office, died at his home, 2031 Portland avenue, on Wednesday morning. The deceased was a son of Officer Patrick Scally and was well liked by all who knew him. His funeral, which took place from St. Patrick's church on Friday morning, was largely attended.

The funeral of Mrs. Mamie Meyer, the beloved wife of August Meyer be tolerated by the electors of the beloved wife of August Meyer, England and they are prepared to the grocer at Adams and Fulton streets, took place Monday morning from St. Joseph's church with solemn mass of requiem. Mrs. Meyer was twenty-seven years old, and her untimely death is mourned by a wide circle of relatives and acquaintances. Rosides her husband she leaves a small child.

Thomas Cunningham, an old and espected resident of the Dominican parish, died at his home, 1015 South Seventh street, late Saturday night. The deceased was sixty years old. He is survived by his sister, Miss Julia Cunningham, and a niece, Miss Lucy Cunningham. A large number of friends attended his funeral, o ask funds from Parliament with Bertrand church on Tuesday morn-

The remains of Peter King, who ast Sunday, were tille on Tuesday nome of his sister, died in New York brought to Mrs. Annie 30 (Portland averal on Wednesnue, until day mornis liven in Lo was a brother perous con of the late Martin King. mired by many ral was largely friends and attended.

SCHOOL. ANOTH

The new 125,000, in St. leted at a Mary's paris isky, Ohio, was with imposing afternoon. The is delivered by in P. Farrelly, the Right Bishop of Cl

LOMAS. SIX

Six young cademy of Our Friday of last week. There es Jennie E. Emma S. Mc-Bride, Clara Hurst, Mary J. Keely and Helen C. Gathof. The exercises began at 11 o'clock and con-sumed nearly two hours. The diplomas and prizes were awarded by the Right Rev. Bishop O'Don-

DOMINICANS

Honor Memory of First Bishop ot the Diocese of New York.

Archbishop Farley Present a Etaborate Exercises on Sunday.

Hon. Patrick A. McCarthy, the Native of Ireland Who Attained Prominence in Great Order.

Sunday was a great day for the priests and people of St. Vincent Ferrer's congregation, New York admits his chagrin over the Gov- City. It was the occasion of the ernor's interference, but denies that commemoration of the one hundredth he had any intention of breaking the anniversary of the Right Rev. Luke Concannen, the first Bishop of New York. Bishop Concannen was a Dominican, and it was eminently fitting that his centennial armiversary church. Bishop Concannen was an Rome before he was elevated to the episcopacy, and then was prevented After five years spent in from reaching his See by war. He His Grace Archbishop Farley presided at the services last Sunday, but Heagan, O. P., the brilliant young for Mayor, but was defeated because Dominican recently elected Provincial of the order. The sermon was preached by the Right Rev. Monsignor united and McCarthy was elected Patrick J. Hayes, Chancellor of the Archdiocese of New York. Archbishop Farley gave the final absolution. Many distinguished priests and members of other orders were gathered in the sanctuary. The body of the church was filled with the leading Catholic laymen of the great metropolis. Bishop Cencannen was born in reland, but his biographers differ as o whether in 1740 or 1747. Those were hard times for Catholics in Ireland, and young Concannen was sent to Europe to be educated. He pursued his studies at Louvain, Belgium, and in Rome. He was ordained Bishops of Ireland. his special representative at the presence of the Holy Father. Vatican, and later suggested him for the post of Bishop of the diocese of New York. Pope Pius VII. appointed ler, of Cincinnati; Bishop Hennessy him and he was consecrated on April of Wichita, and Bishop Fitzmaurice 24, 1808. Bishop Concannen made of Erie. At his first audience Bishop two efforts to reach America, but Hennessy presented a large group of failed to elude the searching eyes of Napoleon's emissaries.

He was the bearer of important messages to the Archbishop of New York, also the pallium for that preate. Hearing that there were American vessels at Leghorn he started for that port with an extraordinary amount of baggage, consisting of a collection of vestments, church furnishings, etc., intended for use in his charge. When he reached Leghorn he found Napoleon mastered the question of traffic beween European ports and North America. The American vessels were not permitted to leave the dock, and the prelate returned to Rome. years later he made the last fight. He heard of a vessel to leave from Naples, and secured passports an passage. On his arrival at Naples the validity of his passport was ques tioned, and he was practically held a prisoner until the vessel sailed. He fied a few days afterward at Rome In the sixty-eighth year of his age. A Jesuit priest, Father Kohlmann, administered the affairs of the diocese until the arrival of his successor, Bishop Connolly, who also was a Dominican. In the correspondence of Archbishop Troy, of Dublin, there is a statement to the effect that that prelate believed Dr. Concannen was arrested because "the French were curious to see the papers of a person so long the agent of the Irish clergy in Rome and going to America as a Bishop. Father Heagen, who celebrated the centennial anniversary mass, who is now Provinicial of the Dominicans, was formerly stationed at St. Lous Bertrand Convent in this

YIELDS NOTHING

But Points in German Letter Are Satisfactorily Explained.

According to a cablegram to the New York Herald some incorrect accounts have been published of the attitude of the Vatican in the set lement of the recent incident with Germany. The cablegram says it is not true that the Holy See withdrawn the passages which caused the commotion. The Pope merely xplained the false interpretation that had been put on them. The encyclical as a whole was meant to glorify the great Catholic reformer St. Charles Borromeo and condemn the heresy of the modernists. The references in it to the Protestant Reformation of the sixteenth century were purely ## incidental and historical and were never meant to refer to the religious movement of the present day other than as a modernism.

Great satisfaction is felt in Rome that no such misunderstanding has arisen as to the Pope's meaning either in England or the United States. The cablegram speaks for itself, but good Catholics will wait until they bear authoritatively before they believe that the Pope had to explain his language as "purely incidental.'

ERIN'S FLOAT

Prominent Feature of Chicago's Sane Fourth Parade.

Things are going well for the pronoters of Chicago's sane Fourth of July celebration, which will consist of a great pageant and army HER TOWNS, CITIES AND RIVERS maneuvers in Grant Park. The Irish Educational Association will enter a float in the parade. It will represent Ireland educating the world, the scene being a cartoon of Ireland in the seventh century, when that country was the source of European educational activity. Ireland is typified as a beautiful foreigners being Danes, who settled there at an early period. The counenth century, with white silk tunic ty from Inishowen Head to Malininterwoven with threads of gold.

Over the shoulders of "Erin" is thrown a great cloak of crimson dary, a little south of Castelfinn, it made in imitation of the cloak worn is forty-one miles wide. It has an by Connor MacNasa, King of Ulster in the first century.

The men representing the various nations of continental Europe are clothed in the garments of skins and coarse handwoven cloth in which the warring tribes of Europe of the seventh century dressed. These men are shown approaching Erin to learn the barony of Tirhugh. The coast line from her the graces of literature, the is broken the whole way around, beauties of art, and the science of music and the crafts of industry. The committee in charge of the float will consist of the Rev. J. K. Fielding, Thomas J. Considine, Leo J. Doyle, John Hayes, J. S. Hyland, John J. Mahoney, William McKinley, Frank O'Bryne, John J. Ryan, James J Stokes and Richard W. Wolfe.

BLESSES ALL.

Pope Plus Spoke in Praise of Religious Liberty in America.

These are warm days in Rome Nearly all the colleges are closed for n the Basilica of St. John Lateran. the summer and members of the In 1781 he was elected Prior of St. faculties and ecclesiastical students Clement's Convent, a famed house of have betaken themselves to the hills the Dominicans to Rome. Eventully for the rest of the summer. At the Dooish, 2,147 feet. It is in the midclose of this m Order and agent at Rome for the man season at the Vatican will come to a close. According to the list Bishop Carroll, the first American kept at the Major Domo's office it Bishop and later the first Archbishop will prove that a record number of f Baltimore, made Father Concannen | Americans have been admitted to the Last week the Pope received three American prelates, Archbishope Moelpilgrims organized by Chevalier Mc-Grane. The Pope blessed all present and said he intended his blessing to extend to all Americans, whatever their creed. Pope Pius spoke in the highest terms of the religious liberty accorded to the Catholic Church in the United States.

LAWN FETE

Will Aid Noble Work of the Catholic Woman's Club.

The ladies of the Catholic Woman's Club will give a lawn fete and reception on the afternoon and evening of July 12 at Phoenix Hill Park, proceeds of which will be to further the work being done by this splendid Catholic organization. A arge number of attractions have been arranged for the entertainment of the guests, including a euchre both afternoon and evening, and in addition an excellent supper will be served on the grounds. The different booths will be in charge of the ladies of the board, assisted by a large committee. Some of the attractions will include a country store, candy stand, fish pond, lemonade stand, gypsy camp, bean bag games and wheel. It is the earnest hope of the Woman's Club that all of the Catholic ladies and gentlemen of the city will come to this lawn fete, as every effort will be made to have them enjoy the day.

OLD CEDAR GROVE.

Historic Cedar Grove Academy neld its annual commencement exercises on Friday afternoon of last Miss Josephine Herrmann was the only graduate. She read an essay, and her subject was "What's the Use." It was a discussion of work done during the many years at school and its value. Miss Elizabeth Neale, an undergraduate, deivered an address of welcome. The Right Rev. Bishop O'Donaghue was the chief guest of honor.

URGED TO PERSEVERE.

Advices from Rome say that the Pope, through Cardinal Merry del Val, the Papal Secretary of State, has addressed a letter to the new Bisho of Winona, Monsignor Helfron, at on ime President of the ecclesiastica seminary at St. Paul, Minn. The Pope praises him for his conduct of that charge and urges him not to lose his interest in the subject of ecclesiastical education, now that he has been raised to the episcopacy.

DONEGAL

The Picturesque Abounds in Magnificent Bays and Lakes.

Historic Points Scattered Over All Parts of This Old County.

Home of the O'Neills and Tyrconnells For Many Illustrious Ages.

The County Donegal is named for the town of the same name. The town took its name from the fortress of the Galls or foreigners, these area of 1,870 square miles and a population of 206.000.

Donegal is a region of mountains and long valleys, and there is a large extent of bog and waste. The only moderately level land lies in the eastern half of the barony Raphoe and in the southern half of presenting a grand succession of bays, promontories, cliffs and islands. Donegal is also rich in headlands.

Beginning at the northeast is Innishowen Head. At the northwestern extremity is Malin Head. Dunuff Head and Fanad are at either sides of the mouth of Lough Swilly. Horn Head is a lofty rock rising out of the sea at the western side of Sheep Haven. Others are Bloody Foreland, Dawros Head, Malinmore Head, Carrigan Head, Muckros Head, St. John's Point and Doorin Point. Still another is Slieve League, which rises 1.972 feet steep from the sea. The coast from Carrigan Head round by Glencolumkille to Loughros Bay exhibits the grandest combination of cliff scenery in Ireland. Donegal has its mountains and hills, too. The two ranges of the Derryveagh and Glendowan mounsouthwest. The highest summit is dle of the Derryneagh range over

Lough Beagh. The county has its islands, also. Tory Island lies eight miles from the mainland. It is about two and a half miles long, and stands out of the sea so as to appear like a great collection of towers and pinnacles. It cortains the ruins of an ancient ecclesiastical establishment, including a round tower, founded in the seventh century by St. Columba. Aran Island contains naerly seven square miles, and rises 750 feet over the sea. Besides there are many little islands in the lakes and rivers. All are full of historic interest. Two deep bays, Lough Foyle and Lough Swilly, nearly insulate the Many other barony or Inishowen. bays and harbors indent the coast clear around the country. Donegal has many celebrated and historic streams and rivers. The Foyle separates Donegal from Londonderry. The river is formed by the Finn and the Mourne, which join at Lifford. Other rivers of note are the Eask, the Eaney Water, the Bunlackey, the Glen, the Owenea, the Owentocker, the Gweedore, the Gweebara, the Swilly, and through Glenbeagh a stream flows northwest which takes successsively the names Owenbeagh, Owenarrow and Lackagh. It flows finally into Lough Swilly, and into the same bay flows the Leannon.

The county is noted also for its fine mountain la'ses with splendid scenery. Among the towns in Donegal are Ballyshannon with something under 3,000 population; Bundoran, a famous watering place with less than 1,000; Donegal with 1,400, and Letterkenny, which boasts 2,100 inhabitants. Other and smaller towns, but none the less historic, are Raphoe, Ballybofey and Stranorlar. Raphoe, by the way, is one of the most ancient episcopal Sees in Ire-

Very fine white marble is found at Dunlewy, at the base of Errigal mountain, and near Raphoe there is a formation of steatite, a soft stone, easily carved and very durable.

Donegal was the ancient Tirconnell, inhabited by the Kinel Connell, who were descended from Conall, son of the great King Niall of the Nine Hostages, who flourished between 378 and 405 A. D., and who possess nearly all of Donegal. Their auguration place was the Rock of Doon, near Kilmacrenan. Four miles northwest of Derry, on a hill, is Greenan-Ely, the ruins of Aileach, the ancient palace of the O'Neills, the Kings of Ulster, who were also for many ages the Kings of Ireland.

Among Kentuckians who boast Donegal as their birthplace are Dr. William B. Doherty, of Louisville, and Col. John J. Dorian, of Paducah. Col. Dorian has made several trips to his native country since he first came to America.

MISSIONS TO NON-CATHOLICS.

The Rev. Father Xavier Sutton, C. P., of Sacred Heart Retreat, is conducting a mission to non-Cathelies at Colesburg this week. Tomorrom he will open a similar mission at Lebanon Junction.